LETTER FROM THE ORGANIZATION

The purpose of this letter is to inform you about the celebration of the 2nd International Tailoring Congress, a distinguished initiative organized by the Spanish Tailoring Association (AES).

Founded in March 2017, our non-profit association has the fundamental goal of promoting and projecting Spanish tailoring and shirtmaking, both nationally and internationally.

We work to preserve the unique standards of our sartorial culture by developing training programs, awareness initiatives, and content creation efforts that ensure the continuous renewal of professionals.

In a sector where tradition coexists with innovation, the Spanish Tailoring Association (AES) positions itself as the benchmark organization for preserving, promoting, and dignifying the tailoring profession in Spain, representing both artisanal workshops and companies offering high-quality industrial tailoring.

Today, AES brings together a broad spectrum of professionals in the field: from prestigious fabric manufacturers and traditional artisanal tailoring houses to companies specializing in industrial tailoring that have incorporated cutting-edge technology to produce garments with high standards of precision and quality.

In this way, AES has consolidated itself as an inclusive, rigorous, and respectful space for the sector's diversity, contributing to elevating the overall standard of tailoring in Spain.

This 2nd International Tailoring Congress not only seeks to highlight the value of tailoring and shirtmaking as crafts with strong historical and human components, but also aims to strengthen ties among professionals in the field globally. During this event, attendees will enjoy the rich heritage of tailoring and share a weekend full of activities that celebrate this fascinating profession.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN MADRID

On March 13th, 14th, and 15th

The choice of the Museo del Traje (Costume Museum) in Madrid as the venue for the 2nd International Tailoring Congress is no coincidence. This iconic space, dedicated to preserving the history of Spanish clothing, perfectly aligns with the values upheld by the Spanish Tailoring Association (AES). The museum, which captures the evolution of fashion and its relationship with culture and identity, will provide the ideal backdrop for our activities.

The congress, taking place from March 13 to 15, 2026, will feature round tables and exhibitions that showcase the quality and tradition of our tailoring and shirtmaking industry. On March 15, attendees will be able to take part in a guided tour of the museum, exploring the evolution of clothing from the 17th century to the present day.

In addition, those who wish may attend a welcome reception at an exclusive Madrid venue on Friday, March 13, and a gala dinner in a landmark location on the evening of March 14.

It is important to note that seating in the museum's auditorium is limited, and registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSIONS

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSIONS

On March 14, 2026, the congress will host several round table discussions addressing the most relevant topics affecting the tailoring sector. This format will allow for rich and participatory dialogue, with the presence of leading national and international industry representatives.

Tailoring, Shirtmaking, and Quality

This session will explore how artisanal and industrial tailoring can coexist while maintaining high standards of quality. Artisanal tailors, industrial manufacturers, and master shirtmakers will engage in dialogue. The session will also address the certifications and quality seals that identify tailors and factories committed to excellence.

PANEL 2

Sustainability

Experts in textile sustainability will analyze the environmental impact of the industry and how tailoring can offer a more responsible alternative to fast fashion. Designers committed to sustainability will present their innovations using recycled and biodegradable materials.

Artisanal and Industrial Training

Public sector representatives will discuss current training pathways in both artisanal and industrial tailoring. Experts from educational institutions in various countries will examine training gaps and how these affect the demand for skilled labor in the sector.

PANEL 4

International Tailoring

Renowned speakers representing some of the most prestigious tailoring houses in the world will discuss different tailoring styles and techniques in countries like Spain, Italy, and England, analyzing their historical evolution and the origins of their unique identities.

TAILORING, FROM THE WORKSHOP TO THE STREET

Exhibition at the Costume Museum of Madrid

The exhibition “Tailoring, From the Workshop to the Street”, on display at the Museo del Traje during the congress, will take visitors on a journey through the history of tailoring and shirtmaking. Through a carefully curated selection of garments from our members and representative elements, attendees will discover the entire creation process that characterizes these crafts, as well as the ongoing efforts of the Association to preserve and promote these valuable traditions.

Visitors will also enjoy the live experience of an artisanal tailoring workshop, where professionals will demonstrate the various stages of garment creation, including cutting, sewing, and pressing.

This exhibition is a celebration of the art of tailoring and the dedication of our members in keeping this iconic craft alive.
